

BRUNS COLLECTIVE

WITH
Kevin Baché

“Bruns and Baché, like stellar predecessors Louie Bellson and Mel Torme, are skilled musicians/arrangers.” —Don Heckman

The Bruns Collective's crossover version of jazz is sophisticated enough for the most critical of jazz fans yet has the pop-sensibilities that make it accessible to non-jazz fans alike. Their music transcends cultural boundaries with a diverse band and unique arrangements influenced by Bruns' folkloric drumming studies from around the world.

This 8-piece band showcases a virtuosic 3-piece horn section and a highly versatile rhythm section comprised of L.A.'s top up and coming jazz stars and seasoned veterans handpicked by Bruns. They are fronted by the powerful lead vocals and charismatic performance of singer/songwriter Kevin Baché [bah-shay].

They have headlined for over the past 10 years at L.A.'s top jazz venues including Catalina, Vibrato, Vitello's, and recently for Los Angeles sponsored events including “Jazz at LACMA,” “Meet Me at Reed Park” and “The Fireside Series.” They toured Japan in April of 2017 and again by popular demand in July of 2019.

Their most recent albums “Live at Catalina” and “Cherry Avenue” were Top-10 charting airing on 300+ radio stations nationwide. Several songs from the “Cherry Avenue” album enjoyed weekly spins on L.A.'s #1 jazz station K-JAZZ 88.1FM for over a year.

BRUNSCOLLECTIVE.COM

“Bruns' drumming and tight arrangements provide the perfect setting for Baché's vocals.”
—Bebop Spoken Here

“Baché combines the tone of Bublé, the energy of Elling and the feel of Porter.”
—JazzTimes

Panout Music Group
3940 Laurel Canyon Blvd. #695
Studio City, CA 91604
(310) 488-9147
jeff@panoutmusicgroup.com